All the other examination related forms HSS-01 (Statement of the number of candidates-subject-wise) and HSS – 02 (Statement of payment of fees), etc. are also available in soft copy in MBOSE website.

3. REGULAR CANDIDATES: Each Candidate should have passed the Selection Test conducted by the concerned institution and should submit a self-attested copy of the Mark Sheet of the Class-XI Internal/Promotion Examination in which he/she appeared and had passed. A self-attested copy of the Registration Card should also be submitted along with the application form.

Pre-filled Examination Application Forms shall be made available to all the Regular candidates of Arts, Science and Commerce streams and who have registered with the Board in the academic year, 2021. Candidates who have registered prior to or after the academic year, 2021, are required to fill in the Blank Regular Examination Application Forms.

If there are minor mistakes in the particulars printed in the pre-filled forms, Candidates are required to correct them with red ball point pen only. Change of subjects can be corrected/rectified only after obtaining permission from the Board.

4. NON-REGULAR CANDIDATES (WHO ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR COMPARTMENTAL) (SCIENCE, COMMERCE AND ARTS STREAMS):

These are candidates who had failed in previous HSSLC Examination(s) in more than two subjects (excluding the additional subject) and are required to appear in all the subjects.

As approved in the 139th Board Meeting Practical Marks/Internal Marks for Non-regular candidate will now be carried over from the previous examination.

Pre-filled Examination Application Forms shall be supplied only to those Non-Regular candidates of Arts, Science and Commerce Streams who had appeared and had failed in the HSSLC Examination, 2022. Candidates who had appeared prior to the HSSLC Examination, 2022 are required to fill in the Blank Non-Regular Examination Forms.

Candidates are required to re-check thoroughly, the duly filled in application form, viz. their names, last issued roll numbers, registration numbers, subject-combination etc. before submitting the same.

It may be noted that no change of subject is allowed while re-appearing in the subsequent examinations (as Non-Regular/Compartmental/Improvement).

5. COMPARTMENTAL CANDIDATES:

(a) Candidates who failed in one or two subject(s) only (excluding the Additional subject) can opt to appear in one or two failed subjects. They shall be categorized as Compartmental Candidates.

Compartmental-cum-Non-Regular pre-filled form has two options to be selected by the candidates.

Option A: To appear as compartmental in the failed subjects only. They can also appear for the failed additional subject if they wish to do so.

Option B: To appear in all the subjects as a Non-Regular candidate (even though eligible for compartmental).

The following condition(s) will apply to the candidates of all streams.

(b) Candidates failing in 3 or more subject(s) (excluding Additional subject) will have to appear in all the subjects irrespective of the total marks secured.

(c) As approved in the 139th Board Meeting practical marks/internal marks for Compartmental candidate will now be carried over from the previous examination.

NOTE: UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHALL THE BOARD ENTERTAIN ANY REQUEST FOR CHANGING THE OPTIONS BETWEEN NON-REGULAR AND COMPARTMENTAL AFTER THE DECLARATION OF RESULTS.

6. IMPROVEMENT CANDIDATES:

The candidates who passed HSSLC, 2022 shall be allowed to improve their performance in either one/two or all the subjects as per the current scheme of studies of the Board if they wish to do so. Candidates as such can also appear for the failed additional subject. Such candidate(s) shall be allowed only one chance i.e. in the next examination. However, these candidates should obtain prior permission from the Board in order to appear for the said.

Therefore, candidates who had passed the HSSLC Examination, 2022 and wish to improve their performance in the HSSLC Examination, 2023 are required to fill in the Blank Improvement Form only. Candidates are allowed to appear either in one or two or in all the subject(s) (including the failed additional subject) and the candidates of all streams shall be allowed to avail this provision. As approved in the 139th Board meeting, practical marks/internal marks for improvement candidate will now be carried over from the previous examination.

A consolidated marksheet will be issued if there is/are any improvement in mark(s), after the candidate surrenders the previous original Marksheet.

7. REGISTRATION:

Registration Number is permanent for those candidates who have registered on or after the year 2010. However, candidates registered prior to 2010 are required to revalidate the registration.

NOTE: Candidates who have not registered with the Board shall not be allowed to appear in the Examination
